Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Thank you for your faithful prayers for my Ministry to the Russian people. Your prayers have been answered many times over. I am humbled by what God is doing in Cheboksary. I have had many great opportunities to preach and witness to many Russians. After preaching this last month an older man came forward and accepted Christ as his Savior. He had a wife that for many years had prayed for him and he finally recognized his need of salvation. God be Praised!!

The weather has been really cold, -18°F. I am looking forward to spring. The cold does not stop the Lord's work. I have been volunteering some of my time to an English club. It is a group of people that get together to practice their English. It has given me contact with many new people and many new opportunities for witnessing. Two men from this club have asked me to teach them the Bible. I would appreciate you praying for these two men that they would recognize their need of Salvation. Their names are Vladimir and Igor. Several others from this club have expressed interest in know more about my ministry. I am looking forward to sharing the Gospel with them.

It is time once again for my annual trip to renew my visa for Russia. I am traveling back to the USA to renew my Visa. I will be in The USA for several weeks while I send my documents into the Russian embassy. I would like you to pray that all would go well with this process. Pray that their will be no hold up on the issuing of a new visa.

Please pray for the continued presence of God in the work here in Russia. Opportunities abound for ministry. Pray that God would grant wisdom for the ministry here in Cheboksary. Pray for more souls to be saved, and churches started.

THANK YOU FOR YOU CONTINUED SUPPPORT.

In his Service,

Cheston Furrow
