Dear brothers and sisters in Christ

Thank you again for the faithful prayers and support for my ministry. I am grateful for your sacrifice and I pray that God will bless you for your faithful support. Luke 6:38 "Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again."

I am rejoicing that I am once again able to report to you that I have received another one year visa. I am always concerned when I renew my visa as many of my fellow missionaries have visa troubles. Praise the Lord! I will now need to register with the local police in Cheboksary. I would appreciate your prayers for my registration.

On June 15 the first of two Missionary families will be coming to Cheboksary. I will be meeting them at the airport in Moscow and helping them get to Cheboksary. They will be staying several months and then return to the USA in the fall to continue raising support for their ministry. The second family will be coming in the fall and beginning their ministry. Pray with me that I will be able to help them find places to live and help them get started ministering to the Russian people.

Please pray for us in these next few months. Russia will be holding federal elections for their parliament in November and then again for their President in March 2008. The government has already complained of foreign governments trying to influence these elections. Pray that missionaries will not be caught up in the government's fight to keep foreigners from influencing the elections.

My bible studies are continuing. I am seeing more interest in these studies and seeing spiritual growth in the men and women that are attending. Please continue to especially pray for Vladimir, Igor, and Misha as they hear and learn from the Word of God.

Thank you again for your faithful support of my ministry.

Because of Calvary,

Cheston Furrow
