The Year in Review

As I look back over the past year, I am amazed at all the Lord has done. In one short year, the Wilson sisters have been trained in the work here and we've worked on tracts and Scripture in English, French Creole, Cebuano, Khmer, Kachin and Thai. I have learned much this year and am thankful for the opportunity to continue learning as I do this ministry God has given me.

The Literature

We have sent the final files to the printing ministries and are expecting the literature to begin arriving here soon. The last of it is expected to arrive around January 20th. This has been the largest project of this kind that I have been involved in so far. I thank God for the Wilson sisters who have worked with us on this. They've been wonderful co-workers and friends. We could never have done such a large project without them. I am looking forward to having April with us in Thailand.

Web Design

In addition to finishing up the literature for Indochina, we have had the opportunity to begin learning web design. It has been a challenge, but I've enjoyed the process. We are using this training to develop a website and I'm currently working on one for my home church too. I am excited about the possibilities of using this as another tool to reach others with the Gospel.

My Home Church

The Lord allowed me to spend a couple of weeks with my home church this month. It was time to say good-bye to them since I don't expect to make it back to Amarillo before we leave the country. I am so thankful for this church who stands behind me with their love, prayers and support. God has truly blessed me with a wonderful church family. It is much easier to leave the country, knowing they are praying for me.

Thailand Departure

We now have tickets for Thailand. We are scheduled to leave for Bangkok on February 1. We purchased our visas last week and are now getting things ready to go. As always, there is much to be done before leaving. Please pray as we try to finish up here and pack to leave.

What's Ahead?

The next month will be spent tying up loose ends and packing. I must confess, this is the part I least enjoy. We not only must pack our personal belongings, but our books, computers, and all the equipment we will need to continue our work overseas. This is always a challenge for me as I want to take all my books with me, not just the ones I will truly need.

Prayer Requests

- God's help as we finish up here and begin packing for Thailand.
- The Lord's provision and protection as we leave for Thailand and get set up there.
- The Lord's wisdom and direction as we work in Thailand.
- Souls to be saved.

Thank you for your prayers on our behalf. We can only do this work through your prayers. I pray God will richly bless you for your faithfulness in this area.

For those of you who support me with financial support too, I cannot thank you enough. Your faithfulness allows me to carry on with the ministry God has given me. My God always supplies my needs. Thank you for allowing Him to use you in this. I know He will bless you.

Because all I am is His,

Myra Noel
