August 2005

"Hope deferred maketh the heart sick: but when the desire cometh, it is a tree of life."
Proverbs 13:12

Our first few months here in Thailand epitomized the first part of this verse. It seemed to take so long to get set up and start working. Just when we thought we were getting something accomplished, things would fall apart and we would be back where we started. We were all somewhat discouraged over this. However, lately we have seen the last half of this verse fulfilled. We are finally able to get things going and we have been incredibly busy.

At the end of April and beginning of May, April Wilson went home, Mrs. Krinny went into the hospital for her knee surgery, and Brian Adkisson and Andrew

Susie Domangue

Coats arrived to help Bro. Tom. Susie and I spent the next couple of months caring for Mrs. Krinny and the household stuff while she was recovering. Our work shifted from office work to housework and caring for Mrs. Krinny. It was different than what we were used to, but I'm so thankful we had that opportunity. It was a blessing to be here for her during that time. The Gaudets have put so much of themselves into my life. I was glad to be able to give back to them in this way.

Folks coming and going

During Krinny's recovery time, we had much company as different people came to Bangkok to visit, see the work here, or have medical care. At times Susie and I would care for the children while parents were at the hospital getting medical care. Other times we just played hostess while Krinny was unable to. It has been challenging, but very rewarding.

Near the end of July, a team from Metropolitan Baptist in Ft. Worth came for a week. This is the Gaudet's home church. The group was a great encouragement to me and we hated to see them leave.

When they left, April Wilson's sister, Sarah, stayed behind. She will be with us for about 5 months. She plans to be here until the middle of December. It's good to have her here. She's been a great help in the work and we've enjoyed her company very much.

Computer work

Wow! There's been so much going on that I'm not sure I can remember it all to update you. When we first got back to the computer work, I was able to work with Theresa Lange, wife of missionary Jeff Lange, on some Thai literature. It's exciting to see some of it being printed today. Some of it is waiting to be printed. Theresa is doing the work on much of this Thai literature. I am just working alongside her as she learns typesetting and all the quirks of the publishing programs. She's doing great and remembers things much more quickly than I do.

The same kind of work has been done in another language from a neighboring country. We are not doing all the work, but working with others to help them with the layout and with learning the publishing aspect of it.

Working on Hmong tracts

Lately we have been working on literature for the Hmong. Many of you will have read Bro. Tom's updates (and prayer letter) concerning the Hmong refugees in northern Thailand. So far, the men are the only ones that have been able to visit the Hmong village, but we have been blessed to be involved in getting literature together for them. Susie has been busy printing. Sarah and I have been typesetting or helping collate, fold and bind. If you have missed these updates and would like more information on the Hmong people, please email me and I'll send you the updates.

Email Updates

From time to time, I send out updates via email. These are not full prayer letters, but short updates to fill folks in on what is going on here. I am not nearly as consistent with them as Bro. Tom is, but I do send them out occasionally. If you would like to get these updates, please email me at myranoel@aol.com, and I will add you to the list.

Prayer Requests

- Strength and health for the whole team. It seems someone is always sick or recovering from something.
- Mrs. Krinny is doing much better. Please pray for complete healing and that she'll get full strength back in her knee.
- Hmong refugees.
- My computer is still working most of the time except for the CD burner. Thankfully I haven't had to replace it yet. Please pray it will work until the Lord replaces it.

Thank you for your prayers. We see God answering them on a daily basis.
